Racing Matters of Interest Gleaned From all Sources .- The Fourth of July Programme.

Turf matters have been rather quiet during the week, nothing to mar the daily work at the fair grounds only the accidents of last Monday. S. S. is not as badly injured as at first supposed. He has not been Cincinnati Enquirer: A gentleman, perhaps 50 years old, dressed in black clothes, with a black overcoat, leaning on a black cane with white points on it, was the obwas Noan Armstrong, the owner of Spo-kane, the winner of the Kentucky Derby and Clark Stakes. The coit has made fully as great a reputation as any that ever ran for a short time. Mr. Armstrong has been quite a dabbler in thoroughbreds for seven years, and his Lord Raglan was at one time well thought of in the Kentucky Derby when Leonatus captured it; in fact, he ran second.

A more eniightened method of vitalizing the blood is by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It braces up the nerves and gives strength and fortitude to endure the ills of life.

Turf Notes.

A. C. Beckwith, Evanston, Wyo., writing the Turf, Field and Farm. says: "I desire to say that, in my opinion, the best place to raise good horses is on the back bone of the Rockies, and as an evidence of this fact I call your attention to the late winner of the Kentucky Derby—the horse Spokane—bred and raised by my neighbor, Noah Armstrong, of Helena, Mont., a region the same as that I advocate. This gentleman is also the breeder and raiser of Montana Regent, who proved to be so great a horse." Mr. Beckwith is slightly mistaken. Spokane was sired at Gen. Rowett's Illinois farm in 1885 and was foaled and raised in Montana in 1886. S. E. Larabie, of Deer Lodge, and not Mr. Armstrong, is the breeder and raiser of Montana Regent.

S. S. Huntley in Turf, Field and Farm: "While Montana has already demonstrated that she raises better beef, better wool, better hay, better oats and better vegetables than are raised elsewhere, she is willing to compete for favorable place in the horse world, and time is all that is necessary to give her most favorable mention. You make me blush when you ask our method of training. We have given it up-we don't propose to pay the wages asked

The American Derby at Chicago is about the only subject taiked of among horsemen. A letter from Mr. Armstrong states It is amusing to note the many apologies

Louis P, an American Derby candidate, won the Golden Eagle Hotel stake, one mile and an eighth, for 3-year-olds at Sac-ramento, Cal., May 14, deteating Flood Tide and Wild Oats.

Mr. Pierre Lorillard was one of the few who did not expect Hanover or Terra Cetta to win the Brooklyn Handicap. He bet some $600 on Exile and cleared more than $8,000 on the investment. The racing associations in and around New York have combined, and will refuse to allow bookmakers on their grounds at less than $100 per day each. Cy Mulkey's stable has been shipped to Portland, Ore. Guido, Rosa Lewis, Quebec, Bogus and Tom Daly are among the con-tingent that he will campaign.

While there Mr. Shaw contracted for the best and most ample supply of advertising paper ever used by any western racing association. An interesting feature of this paper is that a fine picture of the great western horse. Spokane, will adorn the posters, so that everybody in the northwest will be given an opportunity to study the graceful outlines of their favorite before his appearance at the Hamline track July 23 as a starter in the Twin City Derby. Spokane is also entered for the Exposition states and the Twin City Merchants' handicap, the two greatest events of the meeting outside the Derby. He will meet Proctor Knott again at Washington Park.
